“Rejoice! The Lord Is King” John Darwell

OPENING PRAYER

Landes Dung

Holy Spirit, descend upon us. Fill our hearts and minds with your presence. We have made plans and preparations for what this morning might look like, but we want to be sensitive to your leading. Guide us as we worship. Help us to set aside our own agendas that we may be ready and willing to follow your leading. Draw us nearer to God that we may be once again reminded that we belong to him. In your holy name, Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER

Pastor Allison

Holy God, we come before you, sovereign ruler of the universe, lord of time and space, redeemer of creation, judge of every human heart, to offer what you alone deserve -- our worship, our praise, our devotion. We are awed by your power, humbled by your presence, freed by your mercy, and changed by your love. As your children, created in your image and called to be your own, we receive the gift of your grace with grateful hearts, knowing that it is a gift we are to share with the world. We pray for those whose burdens this day are heavy, who carry physical, mental and emotional cares that weigh them down. We pray for those who will lie down tonight hungry, sick or displaced. We pray for those who are grieving, alienated or despairing; for those who are victims of hatred, neglect or violence. May what we have received from you -- forgiveness for our failures, love when we have been unlovely, comfort in our distress -- compel us to embrace our neighbors near and far for the sake of Jesus Christ, our friend, shepherd and King of our lives...

Christ, we pray for those who are sick, in the hospital, recovering at home, or facing procedures....

We pray for those who mourn, asking for the Holy Spirit to comfort them and remind them of the hope we have in You....

We pray for those who are traveling. See them safely home....

We celebrate with those who celebrate....

We pray for our first responders, health care professionals, and our spiritual leaders....

We lift up these prayers to You, as well as spoken prayer requests and unspoken prayers of our people....

Silent prayer

We pray in the name of our Savior who taught us to pray, saying...

THE LORD’S PRAYER
